

THE VERTICAL ADVENTURER

CHECKLIST FOR MOVING OVERSEAS

The following list will hopefully help remind you of things to consider. It's a short version of all the information found on the website. The more planning and preparation you do early on, the less stressful it will be!

When the move is a while away:

- Make a list of what you need to do.
- Add dates into a calendar on your phone with reminders.
- Sell items you don't use and consider minimalism.
- Scan important documents to cloud storage.
- See your accountant and ask the questions.
- Start receiving bills and important documents by email
- Driving licence in new country, do you need an IDP?
- New job organised or just wing it?
- Visas

When the move is closer:

- Travel Insurance.
- Organise accommodation in new country if required.
- Organise transport in new country if required.
- Doctors visit if required.
- Alert your bank of the move.
- Set up new bank account if possible.
- Have Transferwise (or similar) ready to go.
- Change your voting options.
- End lease or finalise house arrangements.
- Let the important people/companies know you are going.
- Redirect mail.
- Disconnect utilities.
- Test pack can ease stress.
- Say goodbye to friends and family.

For more information, head to: www.theverticaladventurer.com